Exercise 2

There is an ongoing debate about English being the passing subject in schools. A quick survey was conducted to find out how other people feel about it. Below are some comments from members of the public.

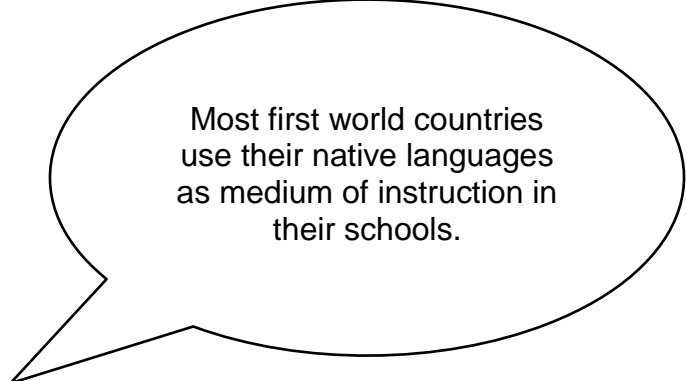

English is an international language, I believe it must remain a passing subject.

This is a colonial master's language; We no longer need it.

I think it's a good idea because all the other subjects are in English.

Most first world countries use their native languages as medium of instruction in their schools.

Write an article for your school magazine, expressing your views concerning this issue.

Your article should be about 150 - 200 words long.

The comments above may give some ideas, but you are free to use any ideas of your own.

You will receive up to 8 marks for the content of your article and up to 7 marks for the style and accuracy of language.

1. Describe what changes you would like to see in your country in the next twenty years and state how you think they would benefit everyone.
2. Write a story based on these words: "From childhood, I always knew I was destined for greatness."
3. To preserve our cultural heritage, we need to teach it in schools. Discuss.
